Nov. 10, 2012

On Wednesday, Nov. 7, 2012, at around 9:00 pm, members of the Metropolitan Police Department were notified of a car fire in the rear of Hamilton Jr. High School, 1401 Brentwood Pkwy, NE. Upon arrival, officers found a late model Lincoln Town Car (taxi cab) fully engulfed in flames. The Fire Department extinguished the fire. An adult male, later identified as Quader Muhammed (decedent), was found dead in the driver's seat of the taxi.

On Nov. 8, 2012, an autopsy was conducted on the remains of the decedent at the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner. Dr. Chen determined that the decedent died due to a gun shot wound to the head. The death was ruled a homicide.

The same day, the Baltimore County Police Department notified the MPD that a caller, hereinafter referred to as W-3, indicated that W3 had information regarding the shooting of a taxi driver that occurred in Washington. MPD detectives responded and spoke with the following subjects.

On Friday, Nov. 9, 2012, W-1 told detectives that Linda Bury (D-2) made contact with W-1. D-2 told W-1 that she and D-2's boyfriend robbed a cab driver and D-2 went to a computer and looked up the incident on the internet. D-2 typed in "Dead body found by burning taxi in Washington, D.C." D-2 and W-1 watched the video on the computer.

On the same day, W-2 was interviewed by detectives and said that D-2 had shown W-2 a bruise on D-2's leg. D-2 said, "My boyfriend and I killed a cab driver."

Based on this information, detectives interviewed D-2 on Nov. 9, 2012. D-2 provided multiple versions of the incident. Initially, D-2 said that she and her boyfriend, Joshua Mebane (D-1), were in a car accident with a cab driver in Washington. After the accident, D-1 and D-2 fled back to their hotel, D-2 said.

D-2 ultimately admitted that she and D-1 had gotten a hotel room at Motel 6 in Washington, D.C., but realized they were low on money. D-1 said, "Somebody has got to get it," because they needed to get some money.

After leaving the hotel and walking around, D-1 and D-2 walked to the Greyhound Bus Station in Washington. D-1 hailed a cab and both of them got in. D-1 told the driver to go to the school near the Motel 6. D-1 asked the driver, "How much?" and the driver said, "$6.50." D-1 asked the driver if he could break a "fifty." The driver agreed. D-2 told detectives that she put a hood over her head because she did not want to watch what D-1 was going to do.

D-1 was seated directly behind the driver, D-2 was sitting next to D-1. Once the cabbie took them to the school, D-1 told him to drive to the rear of the school. D-1 then took out a black glove and a handgun from a small sports bag he was carrying, and shot the driver in the back of the head. D-2 said the car then accelerated and it crashed into a tree.

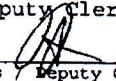

According to D-2, she and D-1 began dating on Nov. 1, 2012. They have seen each other almost daily since then. She identified a photograph of him.

In a search warrant of D-1's home on Nov. 9, 2012, officers discovered (among other things) a black handgun, ammunition, clothing consistent with D-1's description of the clothes Mebane wore during the murder, and hotel receipts from the area near the murder.

In a search warrant of D-2's house on Nov. 9, 2012, detectives located (among other things) clothes consistent with those D-2 said she wore on the day of the murder, and a note from D-2's jeans stating "we should have took the dude's money." D-2 confirmed the note was written by her.

The events and acts described above occurred primarily in the District of Columbia and were committed as described by defendant(s) listed in the case caption.
